

Institutional Distinctiveness

The college, following the footsteps of the parent body, believes in extending support to the helpless. Apart from allowing students to pay their fees in installments, there is also an attempt to help the people in rural areas.

The NSS students, like every year, visited the village and stayed there for 10 days. During this stay, they helped the villagers by constructing a temporary band on the river Ulhas thus resolving their problem with water.