A Report on online workshops on
'INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND DESIGN FILING'

Creativity is an important human resource and is a necessary boost for human life. The creator of intellectual property has the right to protect it from any kind of theft. As everyone in a higher education belongs to the knowledge society, all need to know different dimensions of intellectual property and the way in which it can be protected.

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Vikas College of Arts, Science & Commerce, Vikhroli had organized an online workshop on 'Intellectual Property Rights and Design Filing' in association with Rajiv Gandhi National Institute of Intellectual Property Management, Govt. of India, Nagpur on Wednesday, 30th November, 2022 at 2.30p.m. for faculty and the students.

Dr. Shubhada Deshpande, co-ordinator, IQAC, welcomed and introduced the resource person and introduced the theme and importance of the activity.

Dr. Bharat Suryawanshi, faculty from RGNIPM was the resource person and presented the theme of the session in a very effective and illustrative manner. He introduced the concept of IPR and explained how it is an important part of the life of those in the knowledge society. He elaborated the technical concepts relating to IPR with plenty of examples from real life which helped the participants in grasping the concepts easily. Dr. Suryawanshi described and illustrated how IPR is applicable in the field of higher education, research and in life in general where one can not only protect his / her own right towards the intellectual property but thus is also motivated to work on generation and implementation of new ideas for the betterment of society and humankind.

He further informed the participants regarding the career opportunities in IPR related office of Govt. of India. He resolved the doubts of participants relating to choosing this career. He also explained how a process can be patented.

The Principal Dr. R.K. Patra complimented the resource person for making the topic very interesting for all the participants and mentioned how important and necessary the concept of IPR is in the field of higher education and research. Prof. Mrs. Wins extended vote of thanks.

Total faculties and students attended the webinar.
